Dear Mr. President:

Re: A Suggestion How To Support the United Nations Campaign Against “Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children”

This is a plea from a 229-member monthly public-policy study group that I have facilitated for the past 18 years. Its participants from around the country include many attorneys and professors.

Per the United Nations, the overwhelming source of slaves (most for sex but some for forced labor, organ harvesting, etc.) come from refugee camps whose residents are so desperate to escape intolerable conditions that they are willing to believe the lies of Organized Crime and “jump from the frying pan into the fire”!!!

Although refugee camps are intended to meet basic human needs for a short time, many have existed for decades. They are usually built and run by a government, by the United Nations, or by an NGO such as the Red Cross.

And despite the U.N. 23-year Campaign Against “Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children,” the U.N. reports that Human Trafficking is a LARGER business for Organized Crime than illegal drugs!!! And LARGER than illegal guns!!!

There are more slaves today than ever throughout history per Prof. Siddharth Kara, Former Director of Harvard’s Program on Human Trafficking and Modern Slavery -- indeed, at least TWICE AS MANY people are CURRENTLY TRAPPED in some form of slavery as were traded throughout the 350 years of the transatlantic slave industry!!!

Meanwhile, the U.S. Government is encouraging Multinational Companies (MNC’s) to re-locate their foreign manufacturing to countries other than China!!!

Why not be specific??? And encourage/direct/incent the MNC’s to re-locate their foreign manufacturing from China to the refugee camps???

After all, the U.S. Government has been overseeing the exportation of American jobs for more than 30 years!!!

Isn’t it about time that the U.S. Government, in addition to trying to bring back those jobs to America, institute policies that direct those which cannot be brought back, to be located in refugee camps rather than China???

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
